

Collaboration and Creativity

Annual Conference of the Anthropological Association of Ireland, 27-28 September, Maynooth University

Friday 27 September, IONTAS building

5:00 – 7:00pm, room 1.33:

Talamh nua:

Sean nós singing in contemporary contexts, plé oscailte/roundtable discussion with:

Sailí Ní Dhroighneáin, Síle Denvir, and Iarla Ó Lionáird

This event is free and open to all

Moderated by Stephanie Ford and Steve Coleman, and co-sponsored by AAI, ICTM Ireland, and Oifig na Gaeilge, Maynooth University.

Saturday 28 September, IONTAS building

9:30 – 11.30AM, room 2.31:

Visual Anthropology Workshop

Organised by Prof. David Prendergast

9.30-10.00am: Welcome, David Prendergast & Daniel Balteanu
10.00-10.30am: Iain Macdonal, 'Co-design & malaria education'
10.30-11.30am: Caoimhe Butterly, 'Borderlands: Exploring ethics of accountable representation,' film and commentary

11:45am – 1:15pm, room 2.31:

Keynote Talk and Film

Dr. Rupert Cox

'The Sound of the Sky Being Torn: three experiments in an anthropology of noise from Japan.'

Dr Rupert Cox is Director of the Granada Centre for Visual Anthropology at Manchester University

2pm – 5pm, rooms 1.33 & 1.37:

Parallel paper sessions

Two Day Conference Fee, which includes annual membership dues: €15 for students and €30 for professionals